

GLOBAL CAPITAL CEO TERRI MCNALLY NAMED WOMAN OF DISTINCTION

Women’s Business Enterprise National Council honors women for their success and commitment to breaking down barriers in corporate and government supply chains.

CHICAGO, (February 8, 2017) — Global Capital Founder & CEO Terri McNally is one of 25 women business leaders to be honored as a Woman of Distinction by the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC) at its annual summit in New Orleans on March 22.

McNally started Global Capital, an equipment leasing and finance firm, in 1999 with a single client and has grown it into a global company providing services to more than 65 Fortune 500 companies and key mid-sized customers. A member and distinguished leader of WBENC since 2000, McNally is a global advocate for women entrepreneurs and continues to provide strategic advice to WBENC to support the growth and success of its Women’s Business Enterprises.

“As we celebrate our 20th anniversary, we are so proud of the inaugural group of the Women of Distinction, including Terri McNally, for her leadership and commitment to our organization and the women’s business community,” said WBENC President and CEO Pamela Prince-Eason.

WBENC is the leading third-party certifier of businesses owned and operated by women. Its certification is accepted by more than 1,000 corporations and many states, cities and other entities.

“To be recognized as a Woman of Distinction by my peers and colleagues is a great honor,” said McNally. “All of the women on this list passionately serve their clients, generously give back to their communities, and play key mentorship roles for other women.”

McNally is a frequent speaker on the topics of mentoring female entrepreneurs, developing diverse business communities, entrepreneurship, and finance. In 2010, she co-founded Women for Wounded Warriors.

About Global Capital, Ltd.

With more than 25 years of experience in the financial services market, Global Capital offers equipment financing and leasing, structured as capital and operating leases. The firm is known for providing strong underwriting, an abundance of liquidity and access to capital, an understanding of accounting and tax issues, and expertise to structure financial transactions of all sizes.

To learn how Global Capital can help companies meet financial and diversity goals, call (312) 846-6918 or visit the website at www.globalcapitaltd.com.